

SUNDAY TABLE SERVICE

Sunday 11th June 2021

Let us sit and watch Songs of Praise together on the ABC and then set the table for our Parish meal.

- Setting our table for our Sunday lunch service.

Sometimes we eat, in front of the TV either together or alone; we eat on the run; we eat out in restaurants or even in our car; but today we sit at a table that we have set for our Sunday lunch meal. It is our everyday altar of life-giving food. Set your table and prepare your meal as a meditation on the importance of the time you are setting aside for worship. If you are celebrating this meal without people physically present, please be aware that God Is With You.

Be imitators of Christ / John the Baptist

Have you heard the saying that corruption starts at the top? At times where a wrong is so great, someone has to say something. John the Baptist's rebuke to Herod was not simply a warning to Herod but a statement of righteousness that all the people needed to hear. As their leader Herod followed his lusts, in doing so he corrupted a social standard that he needed to be an example of.

Just like Elijah who upset Jezebel, John the Baptist upset Herodias, and Michal chose to despise David when he praised the Lord, people who choose to do evil hate the truth. No matter how small we may think we are someone will look up to us to be their example. People seeking God accept redirection in order to know God's peace. Just as Christ is our example, we are an example of Christ to others. If we choose to corrupt our testimony of Christ, then we are highly likely to damage others.

- opening prayer — consciously drawing together in our mind our Parish community around our table.

Be still and silent.

Visualise in your mind, those whom you invited to share with you. Pray:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Here, and throughout the world,

We adore you O Christ, and we bless you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world. Amen

Bless this food, both physical and spiritual.

Bless all who gather at your table, both seen and unseen, In Jesus' name we pray. Amen

- Let us read and reflect on our cycle of readings

A reading from the second book of Samuel, Chapter 6 beginning at Verse 1

6 David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. 2 David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the Lord of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim. 3 They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart 4 with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark. 5 David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the Lord with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals. <sup>12</sup> It was told King David, "The Lord has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing; <sup>13</sup> and when those who bore the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. <sup>14</sup> David danced before the Lord with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod. <sup>15</sup> So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. <sup>16</sup> As the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart. <sup>17</sup> They brought in the ark of the Lord, and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and offerings of well-being before the Lord. <sup>18</sup> When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts, <sup>19</sup> and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat,<sup>[a]</sup> and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes. [NRSV 2 Samuel 6.1–5, 12b–19]

Hear the word of the Lord,

thanks be to God

Psalm 24

- 1 The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it: the compass of the world and those who dwell therein.
- 2 For he has founded it upon the seas: and established it upon the waters.
- 3 Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord: or who shall stand in his holy place?
- 4 Those who have clean hands and a pure heart: who have not set their soul upon idols, nor sworn their oath to a lie.
- 5 They shall receive blessing from the Lord: and recompense from the God of their salvation.
- 6 Of such a kind as this are those who seek him: those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
- 7 Lift up your heads, O you gates, and be lifted up, you everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.
- 8 Who is the King of glory?: the Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.
- 9 Lift up your heads, O you gates, and be lifted up, you everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.
- 10 Who is the King of glory?: the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Ephesians, Chapter 1 beginning at Verse 1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are in Ephesus and are faithful in Christ Jesus: <sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, <sup>4</sup> just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. <sup>5</sup> He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, <sup>6</sup> to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. <sup>7</sup> In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace <sup>8</sup> that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight <sup>9</sup> he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, <sup>10</sup> as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. <sup>11</sup> In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, <sup>12</sup> so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. <sup>13</sup> In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; <sup>14</sup> this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. [NRSV Ephesians 1.1–14]

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark, Chapter 6 beginning at verse 14
Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

<sup>14</sup> King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him." <sup>15</sup> But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." <sup>16</sup> But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised." <sup>17</sup> For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. <sup>18</sup> For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." <sup>19</sup> And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, <sup>20</sup> for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. <sup>21</sup> But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. <sup>22</sup> When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it." <sup>23</sup> And he solemnly swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom." <sup>24</sup> She went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the baptizer." <sup>25</sup> Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." <sup>26</sup> The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. <sup>27</sup> Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, <sup>28</sup> brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup> When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

[NRSV Mark 6.14–29]

This is the Gospel of the Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

- Sentence

Who shall stand in the Lord's holy place? Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their hands to what is false.

- eating reflectively and responding to the passage

Let us now engage in some quiet reflection, or conversation and sharing, responding to the Gospel passage. We may like to write down some key thoughts for further reflection.

She (Michal) despised him (David) in her heart; Herodias had a grudge against him. Seek the face of the God of Jacob

Paul states that In Christ when we heard the truth of salvation and believed in Jesus we are marked with a seal of the promise. This promise is His Holy Spirit that is active in our lives, aiding us to live as an imitator of Christ. As we imitate Christ, we draw others to want to be the same. God chose us to be holy and blameless in Him that emanates His love. Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, they will receive the Lord's blessing and vindication, because God is their salvation. The way we do this is to seek him and protect our souls from what is false and deceitful. A corrupt soul causes to destruction and death, a pure soul creates salvation and life.

• spending time together in prayer

Now let us continue to offer our prayers for healing of the world; for all those whose lives have been affected by the COVID 19 virus, for family, members of the parish and wider community, for the life and ministry of the Church, for encouragement in our journey of faith.

We pray alongside those in our parish asking for prayer. .Let us say the Lord's Prayer Together. Our Father .....

Prayer of the Day

Eternal God, open our eyes to see your hand at work in the splendour of creation and in the beauty of human life.
Help us to cherish the gifts that surround us,
to share our blessings with our sisters and brothers,
and to experience the joy of life in your presence;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Conclude the meal with the following prayer together.

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be amongst us and remain with us always.
Amen.
